

Bridge Update

In speaking with Trent Jobson, he stated that the footing for the bridge across from the log building needs to be redesigned so it may take a little longer to be completed. We will have more information soon and will share it as soon as we can.

Apologies for any inconvenience that this has caused for community members