

JOB SUMMARY:

Canada Nickel Company Inc. (CNC) is advancing the next generation of nickel-sulphide projects to deliver nickel required to feed the high growth electric vehicle and stainless steel markets. Canada Nickel Company has applied in multiple jurisdictions to trademark the terms NetZero Nickel™, NetZero Cobalt™, NetZero Iron™ and is pursuing the development of processes to allow the production of net zero carbon nickel, cobalt, and iron products. Canada Nickel is currently anchored by its 100% owned flagship Crawford Nickel-Cobalt Sulphide Project in the heart of the prolific Timmins-Cochrane mining camp. For more information, please visit www.canadanickel.com.

Reporting to the Vice President Sustainability, the community relations and communications coordinator will be responsible for creating and maintaining efficient communications channels with Indigenous communities and local stakeholders. He or she will be actively involved in the development and implementation of a rigorous community engagement process aiming to identify the challenges and opportunities facing the development of the project while also supporting the socioeconomic aspects of environmental and impact assessments. As part of its mandate, the community relations and communications coordinator will also support the corporate team in elaborating communications strategies and managing local and global communications, including managing social media platforms and organizing company presence at industry events.

---

JOB RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Develop and implement communication strategies adapted to each community.
  - Maintain a direct link with the community by informing them of the progress of the project.
  - Organize consultation meetings with Indigenous communities and local stakeholders and ensure regular follow-up.
  - Ensure the production of content for the various communication tools, including social media platforms, newsletters, etc.
  - Manage media requests and carry out press reviews.
  - Coordinate the logistics associated with the participation of the company to conventions and roadshow, including managing the visual and contents.
  - Represent the company at local and regional organizations and events.
  - Support coordination and management of the Timmins office.
-

REQUIRED PROFILE:

- The candidates should minimally hold a bachelor degree in communication, public relations, sociology or any other relevant field of study.
- The candidate should have a minimum of 5 years of experience in a similar position.
- Excellent command of English, both oral and written, good knowledge of French an asset.
- Excellent writing, popularization and linguistic editing skill.
- Strong interest in the social acceptability of large projects.

What you bring to the table?

- You are easy to approach and easily develop relationships with people.
- You are dynamic, autonomous, well structured and organized.
- You can easily adapt in a fast-changing environment.

What you might have extra up your sleeve?

- You have a good knowledge of the mining industry.
- You are interested by local and regional politics and you have a good understanding of it.
- You are involved in local development organizations.
- You have collaborated with Indigenous communities.

What's in it for you?

- You will contribute to the development of the new generation of mining project supporting the electric vehicle sector.
- You will be joining an experienced team of mining projects developers with strong environmental and social principles and values.
- You will have excellent and flexible working conditions, including a competitive salary and benefits package.

TO APPLY:

- All interested candidates should submit their resume to HR@canadanickel.com no later than May 12, 2023.
-

At Canada Nickel Company, we are committed to fostering an inclusive, accessible environment, where all employees and customers feel valued, respected and supported. If you require an accommodation for the recruitment/interview process (including alternating formats of materials, or accessible meeting rooms or other accommodation), please let us know and we will work with your needs.

We thank all applicants for their interest but will only contact candidates selected to advance in the hiring process.